ON THE ROAD To The Title

It was an incredible day at Marconi Stadium on Super League Grand Final day, with 21 goals being scored in three matches in front of a sizable crowd.

GRANT BARD (right) tries to shake off MATTHEW LOWE.

Blacktown clinched their second Grand Final in as many years, although it wasn't quite as comfortable as the scoreline might suggest.

A superb display of power up-front for the Demons was the difference between the teams, with Blacktown putting away their chances while the Eagles missed theirs.

Blacktown coach Brian Brown said after the game that his teams finishing had been 'incredible', while Parramatta coach Roberto Viera agreed, saying, "if you don't take your chances, you will not win a Grand Final."

Parramatta were the brighter of the two teams early on, and just three minutes had elapsed when Adam Anderson nipped in on a mis-placed Damon Langan pass, but his striking partner Grant Bard could only shoot straight at Fernando Greco. It would prove to be a rare mistake from Langan.

Five minutes later Anthony Panzarino weighted a beautiful ball between two defenders for Maurico Islas, but his attempt to chip Greco didn't quite get enough height on the ball.

Blacktown's first real effort came when Damien Smith teed up Steve Riches, but the number three's drive was straight at Jason Holmes in the Eagles goal.

On 24 minutes came the first goal of the final, and it went Blacktown's way. Damien Brown on the right-hand side got on the end of a free kick, and he was able to prod the ball over Holmes and into the net.

A minute later Anderson headed just over for Parramatta, but on the half hour mark Brown turned creator, and set up Jon Angelucci for his teams second.

Brown's far post cross beat everyone except the big striker, and he slammed a header home to double his teams advantage.

It was tough on Parramatta to go in at half-time with a two goal deficit, and they started the second half in good fashion, and once again looked the team more likely to score.

The goal they had been promising finally arrived on 68 minutes when Balla Conde, who had another impressive game, hit a shot against the post but Mark Revely steered the ball in from close range.

At that stage it looked like the Eagles were going to produce another one of their comebacks, but just six minutes later a familiar combination made it 3-1 to the Demons.

A free kick saw Brown once again deliver a telling cross, and Angelucci scored his second header at the far post to effectively seal the game.

Parramatta didn't give up though, and on 75 minutes it needed the long leg of Paul Yates to prevent Grant Bard from scoring, after the striker had dispossessed Greco, and to sum the game up a minute later a similar incident at the other end produced another Blacktown goal.

Angelucci again caused problems, and although he was forced wide by Holmes he chipped the ball into the middle where Damien Smith was able to bundle the ball over the line. It was just reward for a fine performance by Smith.

The last action of the day saw Blacktown notch their fifth, when Stuart Cleary and Aaron Holst beat the offside trap. Cleary hammered a shot goalwards that hit the underside of the crossbar, but substitute Holst did well to twist and head the ball home.

Brian Brown was understandable delighted after the game, although saying that his team hadn't played that well apart from the finishing.

"Sometimes you just think your name is on the trophy," said Brown. "To be honest we never thought about losing, and these boys really deserve it."

Brown also praised suspended skipper Damien Foxe, saying that his absence was the only bad thing about the day, but also stating, "Foxy has trained harder than anyone else this week. It just goes to show the sort of bloke he is."

Roberto Viera was naturally disappointed with the loss, but said that he thought his team had played well in patches.

He praised his young players for the improvement they had shown throughout the season, but said, " It is disappointing when we talk about far post crosses before the game, and Blacktown still catch us out.'

Fernando Greco
Didn't have a great deal to do, but did what he had to comfortably - 7

Matthew Lowe
Proved solid at the back and form a good rear-guard on the right-hand side - 7

Steve Riches
Got forward more than Lowe, and allowed little past -7

Aaron Holst (sub for Riches)
Came on and scored - 6

Chris Bradley
Solid at the back and comfortable on the ball - 7

Damon Langan
A mistake early on - and not another all day - 8

Jon Angelucci
Tremendous second half and two goals - 8

Stuart Cleary
Had little opportunity and was well-marked. Set the fifth goal up - 6

Jason Bennett
Groin strain kept him on the sidelines until late in the game

Damien Smith
Another finals goal and another good performance - 7

Paul Yates
Big defender played well as part of a solid back-line - 7

Damien Brown
Couple of moments of quality - the difference between the two sides - 9 Peter Sermanni - Harried in midfield and did the 'unseen' work - 7

Under 21's

Macarthur Rams 8 Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4

An amazing game in the Under 21 final saw the Macarthur Rams down a nine-men Bonnyrigg side 8-4.

Goals from Shane Risby (2), Gary Attard (p) Gavin Cremming, Rodney Hutchinson, Kaan Uysen, Kory Babbington and an own goal gave Macarthur their score of eight, while for the White Eagles their season came crashing down as they scored through Joe Bruni, Stuart Neilson, Milan Savic and Dragan Skoric.

As well as having the two players sent off both teams also missed penalties, although the takers in both instances were able to knock in the rebounds, Babbington for Macarthur and Savic for Bonnyrigg following up saved efforts.

Even more incredible was that this came came as a result of Bonnyrigg winning their semi-final match last week by a much lower score...7-4!

Macarthur Rams: Munsie, Cremming, Horne, Judge, Babbington, Newell, Risby, Attard, S Cevenini, Thompson, McAusland subs: Taylor, Lomas, Hutchinson, Uysen, C Cevenini

Bonnyrigg White Eagles: Bozic, Bruni, Neilson, Mandic, Prerad, Savic, Jones, Poljak, Smith, Leski, Di Francesco subs: Ali, Sakeld, Ostojic, Skoric, Ellis

Two goals in the first 20 minutes through Muscat and Moore got the Eagles off to a flyer, and they never looked like losing the game which added a Grand Final trophy to their Premiership victory.

Parramatta Eagles: Bayly, Marangon, Gatt, Zorzan, Nohra, Berbis, Anabalon, Vegas, Muscat, D Mansuetto, Moore subs: Lima, Graham, A Mansuetto, Andronakis, Barrett

Macarthur Rams: Taylor, Baron, Brandt, Burford, Dufficy, Faulks, C Cevenini, Granger, Henrickson, Montelone, Wither subs: Timbs, Dunn, Lopez, Southall, Duggan

While the games themselves came up with goals galore for the spectators, there were also a number of other events that went on to make the day a fun one.

Clowns, balloons, face-painting and a half-time penalty-kick competition all helped to both bring the crowds in and keep them amused when the soccer wasn't on.

New South Wales Soccer Federation's Marketing and Communications Manager, Bonita Mersiades, had this to say about the day.

"It was a good fun day, and we were blessed by great weather, which always helps.

"The crowd got value for money in terms of goals scored, although personally I would liked to have seen some closer games!

"We were delighted to the response we got from the spectators to the clowns, balloons and face-painting, and it was particularly pleasing to see two of the younger members of the crowd walk away with two of the prizes for the penalty-kick competition - an autographed Socceroos jersey and a Sony Playstation."

In other Super League news, the annual Awards night on Friday should be another superb night, and Super Soccer hears that an unnamed official from the development division of the English Football Association may be turning up to address those present.

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND TWENTY TWO SUMMARY

ILLAWARRA STORM INTO SEMI FINALS WITH BIG WIN MOOREBANK STAVE OFF RELEGATION AND SEND DULWICH TUMBLING

The season was due to conclude on Monday night when Illawarra Lions hosted Stanmore Hawks on the South Coast. It might have been a key match, but most of the drama had already unfolded by the time Sunday night came around.

There had already been two midweek games the previous week, both staged under the brilliant lights at 2nd Division Fraser Park.

On Tuesday night, after a couple of days of steady rain, the skies cleared and Stanmore and Bathurst managed to play a good game of football on a sand-strewn surface with the home side enjoying the best of the fortune handed out, sneaking two of their goals in off the post while Bathurst hit the bar three times, having always looked competitive.

Soc Bakafoukas made a solo run to get the first goal of the game, after just 11 minutes and then Nick Kartambis, via the post, turned in a low cross from Nick Kambounias who had been put though on the left by Eddie Briscoe in the 23rd.

Briscoe was again the provider in the 37th feeding Kartambis this time for a low cross from the left that was tucked in off the post by Malcolm Adams.

Player-coach Briscoe then completed the scoring when he struck well from the edge of the area with a classic left footer in the 43rd to find the bottom right corner.

That may have given the impression that Bathurst were never in the hunt, but that is far from the case and their second half display reinforced how unlucky they had been in the first.

Mark Rooke had a long range shot well saved by Paul Kyprianou after just six minutes, the keeper diving full length to effect the stop.

From Brad Gallard's through pass in the 21st Liam Ackland rocked the Stanmore crossbar and Adam Collins, always in the thick of things, drove two shots just inches wide.

Bathurst should have scored, also, after the break, but Ackland's header was just over, as was another Collins shot, but the gallant visitors won many admirers for their never-say-die performance and ability to compete throughout.

Then on Wednesday night, in front of a crowd estimated at between 300 and 400, at Fraser Park in Marrickville, Dulwich Hill knew that their quest to remain in the NSW First Division might well have come to an end after they dipped out to the odd goal in five against the always enigmatic Auburn.

They were no match for an adventurous Auburn going down 3-2 to the western suburbs side who had been two goals up inside 40 minutes. A late surge gave the Hills men a glimpse of what might have been, but really they needed all three points to make Saturday's game against Moorebank easier for them and that proved beyond them.

Taner Omac got Auburn off to a good start in the 13th minute and Northern Spirit youngster Anthony Kanaan extended the lead in the 40th.

Though Ivo de Jesus pegged one back on the hour, via a deflection, Auburn were back with a two-goal cushion five minutes later through Navid Varess. Ivo de Jesus's 74th minute strike gave the embattled home side hope, but it was not enough to save their skins.

Moorebank still held a handy 3 point advantage going into Saturday's final game against them at Arlington Oval and even if Dulwich had been able to win they knew that they would still face a relegation play-off. Ironic, that, as last season they won a promotion play-off to come up from 2nd Division, defeating Hajduk Wanderers the side who may yet be the one to replace them. If not, then it will be fellow Portuguese-backed Fraser Park that usurp them.

As it turned out there was no need for any such thing as a play-off, as Moorebank won 3-0 in almost a canter, scoring two of their goals before the break.

Faced with the loss of four key players Moorebank coach Alfredo Barrios brought in 18 year old Trent Dunlop for his debut, straight from the Under 18 side, earlier in the day and also gave 16 year old Thomas Tregear a run for the first time, during the last half hour of a game that looked surely theirs.

Moorebank was able to allow themselves that luxury as they were already three goals up and the last of those was scored by Dunlop, who had already set up the second goal for Alex Locke to score with a well timed header among a bunch of players at the edge of the area in the 35th minute.

The first had come from a Joe Corrente corner on the right that Peter Alexopoulos glanced inside the left post just 24 minutes into the game.

Corrente typified the Moorebank character, getting out of a sick bed to play and having an outstanding game. He was forced to do so when Mike Necovski, Spiro Rompies, Phil Wurth and Adriano Maiorca were all declared unfit.

One player who was kept busy in the game, yet made his work look extra easy, was goalie Les Pogliacomi who now returns to Wollongong Wolves after a successful loan period.

The third goal was well deserved by Dunlop who collected a low cross from the left by Adam Young who had robbed Vladan Jeremic, and raced into the area to set up the goal for the youngster.

The First Division's top scorer, Dean Harding, then had a one on one with keeper Haydar Arslan who was quick to come off his line and save with his diving legs in the 3rd minute.

Alexopoulos almost got another in the closing stages of the first half when his far post header was cleared off the line and Moorebank should also have scored in the 63rd when Corrente put in a through pass for Locke who dwelt on the ball too long when well placed to score.

But the 3-0 win was comprehensive enough for a side endangered for most of the season and pleased to finish six points off the bottom at the finish.

Manly Warringah continued their scratchy form of late in going down 1-0 at home to Auburn on Saturday, mising the key midfield work of Alan Hunter and Kelvin Foster and having already sewn up the minor premiership, finding motivation a problem as well.

An early set play by Auburn saw Gurdal Ozcan shoot from the left and just outside the box, forcing the save from Dean McCreath and then the clearance by the defence.

The First Division's top scorer, Dean Harding, then had a one on one with keeper Haydar Arslan who was quick to come off his line and save with his diving legs in the 3rd minute.

In the 9th minute Harding's corner found the waiting head of Danny Barbalace whose header just cleared the cross bar and in the 15th Damian Rosenthal ran onto a through ball into the box where the keeper came out and where the two players collided, with the keeper coming off the worse with a bleeding nose.

After continued Dolphins pressure and a high degree of possession, Manly began to look like making the breakthrough. Harding took the ball to the right by-line in the 20th, before cutting it back for Adam Townsend whose shot deflected off a defender back into the path of Matt Godwin.

It was then laid off to Damian Rosenthal, whose shot looked to have crossedthe line, but the assistant on the sideline ruled that the whole ball didn't cross over, a decision that was a talking point long after the game had finished.

Seven minutes later and seemingly against the run of play, Auburn went on the attack and both Danny Barbalace and Mark Moult were unable to clear the ball from the left edge of the box allowing Tyrone Lara's tenacity on the ball to pay off when he struck the ball from that position just outside the box, a sweetly timed shot which went past the keeper at full stretch.

In the 34th Matt Godwin won the ball on the left flank and after taking it closer to the by-line and delivering a pin point cross, Damian Rosenthal arrived 4 yards out to direct a volley over the cross bar when it seemed easier to score

In the 61st an Adam Townsend corner reached the head of Matt Bastian whose finishing effort went wide.

In the 86th Townsend had a good shot on target from the edge of the box, but it was well saved by the keeper, Arslan

And that was about it as far as Manly were concerned and they will be looking to regain some of their old from in time for the Finals series.

Illawarra Lions accounted for Rockdale 5-3 on the South Coast, a result that propelled the Lions above the Sydney side and into a guaranteed play-off position.

Alex Krstevski scored first for the home side in the 5th minute and Jason Kencevski made it two after 20 minutes.

Rockdale then bounced back to lead 3-2, with goals from Spase Najdoski in the 39th and 54th and by Peter Apolveski in the 57th.

It was then Illawarra's turn to come back, veteran defender Velemir Kupresak scoring two goals, an 80th minute equaliser and an 89th minute lead-taking goal which was followed by a stoppage time strike from Valentin Tasevski for the eventual convincing win.

Hurstville City Minotaurs defeated Bathurst '75 the same day, with a 3-2 result at Hurstville Oval.

Bathurst led from a Liam Ackland goal in the first 7 minutes and that's how it stayed until five minutes into the second half when John Tratselas netted for Hurstville.

Further goals from Spiro Kladis in the 54th and by Nick Knithakis in the 75th were enough for the Minotaurs to hang on and stave off a late rally by Bathurst which included a successful strike by Ben McLean in the 87th minute.

Stanmore went down 3-2 at A C United's Abruzzi Oval where goals in the 21st and 49th minutes respectively by Devrin Huseyin and Fabio Screpis had the home side well on top early.

The loss by Stanmore of striker Soc Bakafoukas hit hard, but they scored in the 59th through Adrian Lara, but another goal by A C's Dullak just two minutes later did not give the Hawks much chance and an Eddie Briscoe goal in the 84th was not enough to save them.

Penrith snatched a draw against highly rated St George on Saturday evening at Nepean Rugby Park.

A brilliant ball from the Penrith midfield gave diminutive Danny Hinton a good chance to beat Trinity Allen at close range, but he pushed his shot wide of the goal in the 17th minute.

Three minutes later the Saints punished the Panthers for their inability to finish when Louis Dounis put a good ball in behind the Penrith defence from deep on the left for Stefan Janic to run onto, well inside the area and deliver a cool finish from close range against an exposed Mike Gibson.

Penrith's MIKE GIBSON - goalkeeper played both games for the Panthers on the weekend.

A Bob Casserly corner was headed in by Richard Astone in the 62nd minute to bring the scores level once more and that's how it stayed.

Astone then came down in the area in the 64th, but no penalty was awarded much to Penrith's dismay.

There were no further scores so both sides advanced to the semi finals with little fuss.

Hinton, Casserly, Ben Wright and Paul Cleary were the best performed of the Penrith side on this occasion.

A brilliant ball from the Penrith midfield gave diminutive Danny Hinton a good chance to beat Trinity Allen at close range, but he pushed his shot wide of the goal in the 17th minute.

Next day AC entertained Penrith Panthers on the same ground, with the visitors this time getting the win, 2-1. Three of the side from Saturday's game were rested, Hinton, Casserly and Wright.

Jon Hawkins got Penrith off to a good start with a goal in the 35th minute, when he got on the end of a corner from Robert Wozniczka, but Gerry Sansone put the locals level again just 3 minutes before the break,

A fine striker by Karim Balloot in the 68th won the game for the visitors, who were guaranteed a semi-finals spot already.

Wozniczka, Balloot and Allan Picken were the pick of the Panthers on this occasion.

It was a good weekend for the club who got teams into all three of the grades in the Finals series.

Hurstville City Minotaurs and Rockdale both travelled out to Moorebank to Ernie Smith Reserve to play their derby game on Sunday and with nothing other than local pride to play for the game had a carnival atmosphere about it.

When Nick Knithakis scored twice inside the first fifteen minutes it was looking as if Rockdale would have wasted the long journey. A header by the Hurstville man opened the scoring in the 11th minute and then the same player moved forward to make the extra man in the 14th, after a swift break and though the keeper came out it was in vain as Knithakis finished too well.

Rockdale regrouped and four minutes later Spase Najdoski, in a rich vein of scoring form, made a run to the far post to put the finishing touch to a cross from the left by Bill Petrovski.

A well worked exchange of passes between Keegan Pillay and Goce Trposki saw Pillay finish off nicely in the 26th minute for the equaliser.

With their tails up Rockdale then began to get into top gear and the talented youngster Trposki, who had already had both heading and shooting chances in the first half and looked like being unlucky again, finally got on target in the 49th after a sweeping move from deep involving Steve Cklamovski and Alvaro Folladosa which enabled a close range finish for a 3-2 lead.

Four minutes later a shot from Bill Petrovski deflected past a defender after a typical run through the middle by the 18 year old which culminated in a drive from 15 yards that found the net.

A Hurstville City handball inside the area in the 77th minute after Steve Cklamovski had created the move and tried the shot, resulted in a penalty, which the former Leichhardt Tigers man took left-footed and beat stand in-keeper George Nikolaou. It was the first goal for the club by one of their better players this season and the last for the club this season as they ran out 5-2 winners.

Sean Robertson had returned to England and both Iain Macdonald and Pat Darvill were unavailable, but the Rockdale side was keen to go out on a winning note after missing one of the semi-finals spots.

SEMI FINALS PREVIEW

Penrith Panthers will take part in all three grades at the weekend, but with a long injury list for much of the season it will be a major achievement if all of their teams continue to progress past this initial stage.

The first grade side tackles the much improved Illawarra Lions outfit in the Elimination Final and it is a game that should provide a good crowd to see the South Coast side in action.

Penrith have recorded two 2-0 wins over the Lions already this season which must be ominous for their opponents, but finals football is different and it is a chance for the record to be set straight.

The other semi final has Stanmore and St George engaged and these two have also enjoyed some spirited tussles this season.

The first game of the season saw the pair play out a tense 0-0 draw and the second meeting had Stanmore winning 1-0 in an equally tight match.

St George do look the better chance of getting their own back at this stage.

ROUND TWENTY SUMMARY

FRASER BEATS HAJDUK IN TOP OF THE TABLE THRILLER GREYSTANES WIN VITAL CATCH UP GAME AT SYDNEY UNI

Sunday afternoon's showdown at Hajduk Stadium between Hajduk Wanderers and Fraser Park lived up to expectations in providing a fair sized crowd with an exciting win by the visitors who, in claiming a 2-1 win, completed the double over their main rivals for the title.

It was a thriller, with both sides going close on many occasions in a scoreless first half.

When Darren Cross came to collect the ball from a Fraser Park free kick in the 4th minute and failed to collect it Ante Zizic was able to nod it in the path of divisional top scorer Matthew Zec whose volley was slammed just wide.

Ante Zizic was causing many problems for the Hajduk defence with his incisive heading ability and two of his efforts had to be cleared off the line in the first 20 minutes.

It was then the turn of the Fraser Park goal to lead a charmed life as shots from Damien Brown, Jack Costello and Trent Worrall all had to be blocked either by the keeper Angelo Rodic or by defenders stationed on the line.

There were many close shaves, the majority at the Hajduk end, but the Fraser goal was not spared by any means.

The second half produced the first goal, when a corner from Anthony Smith, a master of the flag kick, saw Zizic arrive at the far post between two defenders to place a bullet header past the sentries on the line, who were beaten at last in the 49th minute .

It took only another 15 minutes for Hajduk to draw level after some solid pressure.

A corner from Jack Costello on the right was not claimed and when the ball was only cleared as far as the edge of the box Costello drove the ball to the far post where Worrall steered it past Rodic at close range.

The home side's joy was short lived, however, as a quick burst through by Sasha Talevski saw the shot from the former Fairfield Bulls' player saved by Cross at his near post only for Talevski to regain possession and fire the ball past the keeper at an awkward angle from wide on the right.

Hajduk threw everything at Fraser in the last half hour, but had no luck. Rick Giometti burst through in the 80th minute only to fire over, while a sustained period in the 87th saw a string of corners awarded and a deep free kick that delivered the ball to the far post where Tony Krslovic unleashed a powerful volley that smashed against the crossbar.

An inch the other way and it would have been in.

Fraser Park are now 3 points clear going into the last two games, neither of which will be easy.

Hajduk can still break back, but this loss was their second on the trot and this does not augur well for them.

At St George Stadium Hurstville ZSC and Mount Pritchard staged an exciting 3-3 draw.

Five minutes into the first half a counter attack by Hurstville saw Matt Darwen in the Mounties goal hesitate slightly, which allowed Ivan Maric to create the first goal for the home side.

Then in the 8th minute a sound move by Hurstville saw a fierce shot parried safely over the bar for a corner.

In the 25th Hurstville very nearly went two up, but again the Mounties had Darwen to thank for another superb save.

A game that started off with some good football deteriorated very quickly in the last 10 mins of the first half when Mounties lost their sweeper Frank Serratore to a red card.

In the second half with the visiting Mounties a goal and a player down. they gave lie to their apparent disadvantage when they came out breathing fire.

55 minutes into the game a corner by Frank DiFilippo floated directly into the goal at the far post for the Mounties to find an unexpected equaliser.

If not for good keeping Mounties could then have easily have gone 3 up in 5 minutes so dominant were they at that particular stage.

On the hour the Mounties brought some feeling back into the game when they went 2-1 up after a free kick from Greg Baldock had penetrated the defensive wall.

In the 75th minute an Ante Buntic free kick hit the underside of the cross bar and dipped just over the line to level the score at two all.

In the 80th minute Hurstville went 3-2 up when a corner was finished, fiercely by Hurstville skipper Bob Barisic who had been lurking on the left hand side of the area.

But that was not enough to earn the home side the points as in the 85th minute a quick counter attack by Mounties saw Greg Baldock finish coolly to bring the final score to 3 apiece.

Hurstville also had a player sent off, Ante Susic.

In other deferred games Arncliffe accounted for Belmore Hercules at Blick Oval with a resounding 5-3 win against a home side reduced to 9 men late in the game.

Belmore had opened the scoring in the 9th minute through Leon Alexiou, but the same player then fell foul of the referee for an offence in the Arncliffe penalty area and was sent off for a second caution.

That allowed Arncliffe to regain the initiative after Belmore had looked likely to get a second.

It was not until the 56th minute, when the Scots won a penalty, given for a handball, which 42 year old former Socceroo Zlatko Nastevksi put away comfortably, that the visitors looked likely to get back in the game.

After that the flood gates opened and Robert Todorovski then put Arncliffe ahead in the 63rd before Nastevski scored twice again for a handy lead and a well deserved hat trick.

Belmore then got back to within a goal of their opponents with strikes by David Fernandes in the 77th and George Ganiatsas in the 80th, but a second goal by Todorovski in the 85th ruled out any chance of another comeback.

Hills United came unstuck at Fred Caterson Reserve against a Mount Druitt side that had been beaten 5-1 at home the previous weekend.

After being dropped as keeper the previous week Jason Wynne took his place in the Mount Druitt midfield and surprised onlookers by grabbing two first half goals for his side to give them a 2-0 lead.

Both goals came within a minute or so of the break and destroyed the morale of the struggling home team.

Jon Van Waard then extended the lead for the visitors in the 63rd minute. but Omar Makki dragged one back in the 75th only for Paul Graham to grab yet another of his goals for the team and a 4-1 win was then the final outcome.

The Saturday match featured Sydney University and Greystanes at St Paul's Oval and it was the visitors who provided the shock result winning 1-0 courtesy of a Scott Cumming goal in the 40th minute.

Darren Crittenden tried a shot and when the keeper Matt Craw could only parry the effort there was Cumming to slot home the loose ball.

At the other end, where the students had many more attacking raids than their opponents, Greystanes' highly rated keeper David Apps was in vintage form to make save after save and it was this factor more than anything that allowed the western suburbs side to steal all the points.

ROUND TWENTY ONE PREVIEW

Just two games away from deciding the winners of the competition now and both of the top contenders have tricky games ahead of them.

Hajduk have to face a confident and well motivated Mount Pritchard whose own ground is but a stone's throw away, making this a true derby.

There was nothing wrong with the Hajduk approach work last weekend, some resolute Fraser Park defence keeping them at bay, but Mounties will be without Frank Serratore and might not have the resources to contain the lively Hajduk forwards. Expect Tony Krslovic to start in this one after Damien Brown hobbled off last week and there may also be a place in the starting line up for Shane Crampton as well. Hajduk should win with plenty to spare.

It may be a different story at St Paul's Oval on Saturday when Sydney University try to get back on track against Fraser Park. To make the semi-finals the students badly need another win and Fraser will not frighten them. Much will be at stake there and a surprise result is on the cards.

Hurstville ZSC also need points to keep Sydney Uni at arm's length and in taking on University of NSW at Hurstville Oval may have a job ahead of them.

Greystanes, fresh from their win over Sydney Uni, may fancy their chances against Arncliffe whose away form does not usually match what they do at Scots Field. This could be another prized scalp for the 'Stanes who won the first encounter 4-0.

Sydney District face Mount Druitt at Camdenville Oval in a match that is yet another chance for them to lift off the bottom. Mount Druitt are still hanging in there and won't want to lose this one.

Hills United meet Belmore at Fred Caterson on Saturday in a last ditch stand to avoid relegation, an advantage for them perhaps being that the visitors will be without both their strikers, George Ganiatsas and Leon Alexiou who both got their marching orders last weekend. Hills would still need to lift considerably to trouble Belmore who are in reality a pretty useful outfit.

There are other games on Wednesday when Greystanes take on Belmore in a rare night game at Bathurst Street Park., while the same night Sydney University return to Oval number 1 for the visit of Sydney District who are in dire need of a win to stave off the threat of relegation.

Super Youth League review

Round 26 action

It was a full round of action on Saturday in Super Youth League as the season starts to get to its climax.

G13

Blacktown are well clear at the top after round 26 action. picking up yet another win with a 4-0 victory over the Gladesville Hornsby Association. The Wollongong Wolves are still in second and trying to keep pace with the leaders, and they picked up a 4-1 win over Marconi Fairfield, while Newcastle in third also had a comfortable win, picking up all three points with a 5-0 win over the Southern Districts.

Sydney Olympic are still in fourth and they picked up a 1-0 win at Melita Stadium, while their opponents, Parramatta Eagles, did win mid-week with a 1-0 win over the Macarthur Rams.

The Rams round 26 game on the Saturday went better for them, picking up a 1-0 win at the Central Coast, while the Southern Branch and Sydney United shared the points with a 1-1 draw. The Coasties are struggling at the bottom of the table, and will need a couple of wins to move themselves off the bottom.

Leichhardt sit in mid-table still with games in hand, and they won 4-1 against the Manly Warringah Dolphins at Lambert Park, while the Sutherland Sharks defeated the Eastern Suburbs 2-1 at Bates Drive.

G14

Sydney Olympic opened up a gap at the top of the table after their game on Saturday. They were held to a 2-2 draw by the Parramatta Eagles, who had beaten Macarthur mid-week 2-1, but most of Olympic's opponents chose the weekend to slip up themselves.

Sydney United are in second but they went down to a surprise 3-2 defeat by the Southern Branch, and the Gladesville Hornsby Association lost 1-0 at Blacktown, who went above their opponents.

The Sutherland Sharks are having a fine season and they picked up another three points with a 3-1 win over Eastern Suburbs. With Eastern Suburbs losing the Central Coast picked up a valuable point in a 1-1 draw with the Macarthur Rams, while at Northlakes Oval Newcastle defeated the Southern Districts 1-0.

Leichhardt shared the points for the first time this season in a 2-2 draw with Manly, while Marconi Fairfield traveled to Brandon Park and defeated the Wollongong Wolves 2-1.

G15

Blacktown did themselves a favour at the top of the table when they defeated the third-placed Gladesville Hornsby Association 3-1 at the Gabbie Stadium.

Marconi Fairfield stayed close to Blacktown though with a 4-1 win at Wollongong, while the Southern Districts in fourth edged out the Newcastle Breakers 2-1.

Sydney United remains fifth and missed the chance to stay in contention after surprisingly losing 4-2 at Southern Branch, the competitions bottom team.

Macarthur were the big movers in the division, picking up two 1-0 wins in the week. They started off with a victory over the Parramatta Eagles at Melita Stadium in their round 21 re-arranged match, and the went to the Central Coast and did exactly the same.

Leichhardt ensured that Manly Warringah stays in the bottom three after a 4-1 win at home, while Parramatta at least did get something from the week, drawing 0-0 with Sydney Olympic.

The days other game saw the Sutherland Sharks come away with a 4-0 win over Eastern Suburbs.

G16

Its tight at the top of the G16 ladder, with Newcastle going back into first spot merely on goal difference.

It seems hard on the previous leaders, Sydney Olympic, who actually won 3-1 at the Parramatta Eagles, but Newcastle won 5-0 at home to the Southern Districts. It means the Breakers go top with a goal difference of plus 41, compared to Olympic's plus 40.

Leichhardt remained in third and did no harm to their goal difference, winning 5-0 at home to Manly, while Blacktown had a 1-0 win over the mid-table Gladesville Hornsby Association.

Parramatta may have lost on Saturday but did pick up a 3-0 win against the Macarthur Rams in their round 21 re-arranged match, but the Rams did close some of the gap on the teams above them when they defeated the Central Coast 1-0 at Pluim Park.

Southern Branch defeated Sydney United 2-1 at South Nowra, and the Sutherland Sharks defeated Eastern Suburbs by the same scoreline.

The days other game saw Wollongong Wolves and Marconi Fairfield share the spoils with a 1-1 draw.

Division One Youth League coverage

There were games played on both Saturday and Sunday in the Division One Youth League competition.

G13

With the Illawara Lions not playing until the Sunday, a couple of teams had the chance to put a bit of pressure on the leaders. It wasn't to be.

The Bankstown Association were in second and they could have closed the gap on the unbeaten Lions, but they lost 2-1 at Hills United.

The Blacktown Association therefore moved level with the Bankstown Association after wining 2-0 at Canterbury Association, while AC United in fourth were held to a 0-0 draw with the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

Stanmore Hawks held the Penrith Panthers to a 0-0 draw, while the Rockdale City Suns defeated Canterbury Marrickville 2-1.

Onto Sunday, and there were three games which all finished with quite lop-sided scorelines.

The Lions extended their lead at the top to 19 points after thrashing the Fairfield Bulls 9-0, while Hills moved within a point of AC United after beating Stanmore 7-0.

Ryde City moved level on points with Penrith after defeating St George 3-0 at Macquarie Uni.

G14

Ryde extended their lead at the top of the table on Sunday when defeated St George 2-0.

The day before their two closest rivals had clashed, AC United and Bonnyrigg, AC moving above the White Eagles and into second after their 3-0 win.

Penrith joined those teams in the chasing pack after they won 3-1 against the Stanmore Hawks, with St George remaining four points further behind after Sunday's defeat.

The Canterbury Association remains in sixth spot after they were held to a 2-2 draw with the Blacktown Association, and they are followed by Rockdale who won 1-0 at Canterbury Marrickville.

Saturday's other game saw a 1-1 draw between Hills United and the Bankstown Association, while Hills also drew on Sunday, 0-0 against Stanmore.

Illawara won the day's other game, defeating the bottom-placed Fairfield Bulls 2-0.

G15

The top two clashed on Saturday at Powhattan Reserve, when AC United entertained the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

AC went into the game with a handy six point lead, and a 2-0 win means they extended that to nine points.

Hills United are in third and they picked up four points from their two weekend games, drawing 0-0 on Saturday against the Bankstown Association and defeating the Stanmore Hawks 3-1 on Sunday.

St George and Canterbury Marrickville played each other mid-week in a round 20 re-scheduled game, Canterbury Marrickville winning 2-0, but the two teams had different fortunes on the weekend.

St George played Ryde City on Sunday and came away from Macquarie Uni with a 1-0 win, but Canterbury Marrickville were held to a 0-0 draw against the Rockdale City Suns.

The Canterbury Association picked up a rare win on Saturday, defeating the Blacktown Association 4-1, while Penrith in fourth defeated the Stanmore Hawks 1-0 at Pratten Park.

There was one other game on the Sunday, the Illawara Lions defeating the Fairfield Bulls 2-0.

G16

There was a game played during the week before round 23, the two bottom teams St George and Canterbury Marrickville drawing 0-0 at St George Stadium.

On Saturday at the top of the table the Bankstown Association defeated Hills United 2-0 to maintain a six point lead, while Stanmore in second defeated the Penrith Panthers 4-1.

The Blacktown Association also picked up a win on the Saturday, 2-1 at the Canterbury Association, while mid-table Bonnyrigg defeated AC United 2-1 away from home.

There were three games on Sunday, Stanmore closing the Bankstown Association's lead to three points after a 1-0 win against the Stanmore Hawks, while the teams in fourth and fifth, Illawara and Ryde City, both won.

Illawara defeated the Fairfield Bulls 3-1 at the BHP Sports Ground, and Ryde defeated St George 2-0.

Division Two Youth League

Round 20 review

G13

The Nepean Association took full advantage of their game in hand during last week to go three points clear at the top of the G13 table. A mid-week 4-1 win at Mt Druitt in a round 18 re-arranged match saw the Association side go into Saturday's match with second-placed Ku-ring-gai Association with that three point lead, which stayed the same after the teams drew 0-0.

Macquarie Sports in third were also held to a 0-0 draw on Saturday, against Hajduk Wanderers, while Mt Pritchard in fourth had a 1-0 win at Moorebank Sports.

Despite their loss to the Nepean Association and a 1-1 draw with the Granville Association Mt Druitt remains in fifth spot.

The bottom two clashed at the CSI Ground when CSI Schofields took on Parramatta City, and it was the home team who took the points with a 3-1 win.

The days other game saw the Camden Tigers defeat Hawkesbury City 2-0 to remain seventh.

Onto Sunday, and Macquarie Sports drew with Mt Pritchard 0-0.

G14

Macquarie Sports holds a one-point lead over the Nepean Association and has two games in hand after their latest victory, a 2-1 win over Hajduk Wanderers.

The Nepean Association also won on Saturday, 2-0 at the Ku-ring-gai Association, but had dropped two points mid-week when they could only draw 0-0 at Mt Druitt.

In third place are Mt Pritchard, who had a 7-0 win over the bottom club Moorebank Sports, while the Camden Tigers moved into fourth after their 2-0 win over Hawkesbury City.

Mt Druitt were unable to build on the point they got against the Nepean Association as they lost 1-0 at home to the Granville Association, while CSI Schofields defeated Parramatta City 1-0.

Sunday's game saw Macquarie Sports go down 1-0 at home to Mt Pritchard.

G15

Hajduk Wanderers went into their Round 20 match with Macquarie Sports with a five-point lead at the top of the table and an unbeaten home record, and maintained both with a 4-2 win.

They also have a game in hand on Parramatta City, who defeated CSI Schofields 3-1 to stay second, then there's a big gap to the Ku-ring-gai Association, who were hammered 5-1 by the Nepean Association.

Nepean also picked up a point mid-week when they drew 1-1 with Mt Druitt in a round 18 re-scheduled match, a scoreline repeated by the Mounties on Saturday when they played the Granville Association.

Saturday's other two games both saw -1 victories, to Mt Pritchard over Moorebank Sports and the Camden Tigers over Hawkesbury City.

Sunday's game saw Mt Pritchard down the Macquarie Sports team 2-0.

G16

While leaders the Nepean Association were floundering, the Camden Tigers picked up another three points with a 5-0 win over Hawkesbury City to stay in second.

The Nepean Association played two games in the week, but a 1-1 draw against Mt Druitt was followed by a 4-3 defeat by the Ku-ring-gai Association - so the Tigers will start to fancy their chances of catching the leaders.

Mt Druitt are third but some way behind the top two, as they followed up their draw with the leaders with a 0-0 draw against the Granville Association.

Hajduk Wanderers remains fourth after a 5-0 win over Macquarie Sports at Hajduk Stadium, and they are followed by Mt Pritchard who won 5-0 over Moorebank Sports.

There were plenty of goals at the CSI Ground as well, Parramatta City defeating the home side 5-2.

There was one game on Sunday, Mt Pritchard winning 4-0 over the Macquarie Sports.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 22 review

With there being no Cadet League Division One games scheduled for the weekend all eyes turned to Division Two, who face a busy couple of weeks as next week is a double round.

G11

The top two clashed at Northlakes Oval on Saturday when second-placed Macquarie Sports entertained leaders Penrith Panthers, the home side going into the game just one point behind their visitors.

Such circumstances usually lead to a tight game, and so it proved as Penrith came away with a 1-0 win, and a valuable three points as they have played a game more than the two teams below them.

The following day Macquarie went to AC United for a rearranged match, but once again was unable to collect maximum points, this time being held to a 0-0 draw.

The Panthers lead at the top is still only a point however, as third-placed Illawara edged out the Stanmore Hawks 2-1 at home, so they sit now in second with a game in hand over the leaders.

There is quite a gap between the top three and AC United in fourth, although their point against Macquarie on Sunday made it four for the weekend as they had defeated Hawkesbury City 2-0 the day before.

Continuing the close matches Hills United in fifth defeated Hajduk Wanderers 1-0 at the Fred Caterson Reserve, while at the bottom Moorebank Sports won by the same scoreline against the winless Mt Druitt Town.

The exception to the general pattern in the division came at Cook Park, where CSI Schofields hammered Mt Pritchard 7-0.

G12

The Stanmore Hawks went down to only their second defeat of the season after losing to the Illawara Lions 2-1 at the BHP Centenary Ground. The Hawks though only saw their lead at the top cut by one point, as the team below them, the Penrith Panthers, drew 1-1 with the third-placed Macquarie Sports.

CSI Schofields in fourth came away with a 3-2 win over Mt Pritchard, which moved them into third for 24 hours, but on the Sunday Macquarie Sports picked up another three points when they defeated AC United 3-0 away from home.

That defeat for AC, after winning the day before 2-1 at Hawkesbury City, sees them miss out on a chance to put some pressure on the top teams.

Hills United are in the top half of the table and won 3-0 over Hajduk Wanderers, but they have played more games than the other top teams. Mt Druitt, despite winning 4-0 over Moorebank Sports, were unable to improve on their tenth position.
